

Volunteers are ESSENTIAL to our work.

They provide transportation for older adults, work in the food pantry, deliver holiday meals, visit the sick and help with many other activities.

It takes our time, voice and resources to build a stronger community - together.

Visit our website for more information about volunteer opportunities or call Volunteer Engagement at 913-730-1410.

Strengthening families, caring for our COMMUNITY.

jfs  Jewish Family Services
of GREATER KANSAS CITY

Family is our middle name.

Like family, JFS is the place to turn when facing challenges in everyday life or unexpected times of crisis.

Our mission is to support and strengthen the lives of children, families and older adults throughout Kansas City, building stronger families and communities. We connect those in need with a breadth of services and resources - regardless of faith, age, culture and lifestyle.

Our Core Programs

Kesher KC

Connections to food and a more secure future.

Centered around two full-service food pantries, people are connected with a range of one-stop resources. On-site social workers and employment coaches help families challenged by food, housing and financial insecurity build a more secure future.

Older Adult Services

Comprehensive aging-in-place programs provide care management, advocacy, transportation and light home maintenance and repair.

Counseling & Mental Health

Counselors offer support to individuals and families facing mental health issues. The You Be You teen program and the Greater Kansas City Mental Health Coalition are important components that promote mental wellbeing.

An array of classes, workshops and events for older adults, parents, children and professionals strengthen families and the community.

Chaplaincy & Spiritual Care

Our Community Chaplain and volunteers provide compassion and connection for people facing setbacks, loneliness, sickness or loss.

Facing life's challenges, TOGETHER.

Repairing the world, one person at a time.

Jewish Family Services is about caring for each other when life gets difficult. We are here for you, a family member, or the stranger in our community.

A breadth of programs strengthen families through education and support to help them flourish at every life stage; guide older adults through the complexities of aging; support our youth by helping them build self-esteem, confidence and a sense of place in the world; and give a helping hand when finances fall short, the groceries run out, or a job is lost.

"You no longer feel you are alone and that no one cares." – JFS client

Last year, JFS provided counseling, advocacy, education, and essential human services to more than 7,000 people in greater Kansas City.
